PTC to hold Information and Financial Aid Night, May 5

PINE CITY, Minn. – Pine Technical College will host Information and Financial Aid Night on May 5 from 5 to 7 p.m. – an event that will provide information regarding admissions, enrollment, financial aid, career counseling, job placement and more in one convenient open house.

“Many people in our community are still experiencing the effects of the recession and would like to go to college but are concerned about how to pay for it,” says Shawn Reynolds, Pine Technical College Director of Financial Aid. “For those who are out of work, wanting to re-train for a new career or wanting to update or expand their skill set, this is the place for answers,” Reynolds adds.

Representatives from the Employment and Training Center, Central Minnesota Jobs and Training, Adult Basic Education and PTC instructors and advisors will be on hand to round out the open house.

- What: Information and Financial Aid Night
- Who: Open to the public
- When: May 5, 2010
- Where: PTC campus (in the Student Lounge)
- Time: 5 to 7 p.m.
