PTC employee recognized as “Job Counselor of the Year”

PINE CITY, Minn. – Pine Technical College employee Mike Murray of the Employment and Training Center office in Cambridge was recognized on June 4 as Job Counselor of the Year by the Department of Human Services at the annual Minnesota Family Investment Program Conference.

“Congratulations to Mike,” Pine Technical College President Dr. Robert Musgrove said. “I thank Mike for his years of outstanding work on behalf of families in East Central Minnesota,” Musgrove added.

The Employment and Training Center provides services that lead to economic opportunity for Minnesota families such as workforce support, child care networking, skill building and community connections. The ETC manages programs such as the Minnesota Family Investment Program, Diversionary Work Program, Child Care Assistance Program and many more.
